

SHEKEYLA  SANDORE
PRINCIPAL ADVISOR | FOUNDER
SC@IRONARBORLLC.COM • LONGMEADOW, MA

Shekeyla (SC) Sandore is the Principal Advisor & Founder of Iron Arbor Advisory, an independent advisory firm focused on helping boards, executive leaders, and business owners build the institutional infrastructure needed to execute with clarity and consistency.

She has advised leadership teams and boards on institutional strategy, organizational design, and operational structure.

Prior to founding Iron Arbor Advisory, SC was a Consultant at Boston Consulting Group, where she led engagements in digital transformation, operating model design, and executive performance reporting.

Before BCG, she spent five years at Wellington Management Company, one of the world's largest independent investment management firms, where she held roles in global multi-asset strategy and institutional consultant relations, with primary coverage of over $25 billion in assets.

SC holds an MBA from Harvard Business School and a Bachelor of Arts, cum laude, in Economics and Politics from Brandeis University. She completed the General Course Program at the London School of Economics and has passed Levels I and II of the CFA (Chartered Financial Analyst) Program.

IRON ARBOR ADVISORY

Iron Arbor Advisory provides independent strategic partnership to boards, executive leaders, and business owners navigating complex strategic and fiduciary decisions

ADVISORY.IRONARBORLLC.COM